Press Release

Eiffage acquires MDM, a leading independent company in Germany in design and construction of noise protection structures

Eiffage, through Eiffage Infra-Bau, the German subsidiary of its Infrastructures branch, has just acquired MDM, a company located in Peine in Lower Saxony specialising in the design and construction of noise protection systems.

Founded over 30 years ago, MDM is Germany's leading independent company in its market. It has around sixty employees and generates revenues of some €20 million per year from its operations carried out on Germany’s road, motorway and rail networks.

Eiffage Infra-Bau, whose business lines include road, civil engineering and rail in Germany, has now added to its range of know-how in infrastructures, at a time when numerous integrated projects are taking shape throughout the country.

About Eiffage
Eiffage is one of Europe's leading construction and concessions companies. The Group's activities are organised on the basis of the following business lines: construction, real estate, civil engineering, metal, roads, energy and concessions. Thanks to the experience of more than 64,000 employees, Eiffage generated revenues of €13.9 billion in 2015, including 19% outside France.

About the Infrastructures branch
With over 23,000 employees and turnover of almost €4 billion in 2015, Eiffage’s Infrastructures branch specializes in all the necessary skills for designing and constructing infrastructures on land and sea, from laying foundations to fitting equipment. Its teams are also experts when it comes to calculating and building envelopes and steel structures. They also provide multi-technical solutions for all industrial sectors.
A subsidiary of the Infrastructures branch, Eiffage Infra-Bau GmbH, which includes Eiffage Rail, Faber, Heinrich Walter Bau and Wittfeld, has 2,000 employees and generated revenues of almost €530 million in 2015.
